SEMME'S HERITAGE CAMELLIA MAIDS

- The Camellia Maids are a select group of young women that will have a lot of responsibility and fun as they represent the Alumni & Friends of Semmes School, Inc. and the community as ambassadors for Semmes History, culture and hospitality.
- The Maids will participate in activities at Semmes Heritage Park, Open House, Old-Fashioned Christmas, Semmes Camellia Festival, Heritage Day, and other special events.
- Selected Camellia Maids are active in their school program and required to maintain good citizenship and a cumulative "B" grade average.
- The Camellia Maids will interact closely with the public and should be outgoing, poised and possess excellent communication skills. In the course of carrying out their duties they will have the opportunity to look at Semmes heritage and to positively affect the community.
- Girls 11 years old through 11th grade eligible to attend school in Semmes, (Semmes Middle School and MGM High School), may apply for selection. Camellia Maids will serve for one year. As long as they meet the Expectations we have for our Camellia Maids, they are welcome to continue through their Senior year.
- Camellia Maids selected are responsible for the cost of their designated costume and transportation to all events.

Use the following checklist to ensure all application materials are submitted:
